

ADMINISTRATIVE AND D&P FINE SCHEDULE

Administrative Fines

|                                                                                                 |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Coach not present at required coaches meeting:                                                  | $50/team  |
| Dropping a team after schedule is released: (include forfeit fee below for each game scheduled) | $250/team |
| Adding a team after schedule is released, if approved by AAYSA Board & League Directors:        | $250/team |
| Failure of coach to serve suspension:                                                           | $250/team |

Administrative fines may only be appealed to the AAYSA Board by posting a non-refundable $100 appeal fee.

Discipline & Protest Fines

|                                                                                                                                                 |                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| Player participates in sanctioned game without proper USYS player pass:                                                                         | $25/player, forfeit laminated/virtual |
| Participation in game by ineligible player:                                                                                                     | $100/player, forfeit, D&P Comm. Review       |
| Player written on Match Card:                                                                                                                   | $50/player, forfeit                          |
| Official Match Card not furnished by either team                                                                                                | $50/team, forfeit                            |
| Team official does not have proper Adult Participation Pass Visible:This includes all Coaches/Team Managers on sideline at any game | $50/person D&P and forfeit                   |
| Team does not show up to scheduled match -Email Notification to League Administrator by Head Coach ONLY:                                    | $150, forfeit                                |
| Team does not show up to scheduled match -Failure to Provide Written/Email Notification to League Administrator:                            | $300, forfeit, D&P Comm.                     |
| Unsportsmanlike behavior resulting in abandonment of match:                                                                                     | $200, D&P Comm. Review                       |
| Verbal abuse / misconduct:                                                                                                                      | $100+, D&P Comm. Review                      |

Virtual Cards will be authorized for use for the 25-26 seasonal year.

Failure to show each and every players card for entry into the game will result in :

Forfeit, D&P Hearing, and fine $25/player

For repeated offenses by the same individual(s)/teams, the level of fines and action may escalate. The AAYSA D&P Committee has the authority to deviate from above when circumstances dictate.